UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT District of Louisiana
ROBERT & SHEMPELL CLERK V. ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TR ROMA JEAN PITTMAN Case Number: 2:05CR 20151-01 Defendant In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts retention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part I—Findings of Fact (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a federal offense or local offense that would have been a federal offense in circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. a offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. (3) A period of not more than five years has clapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonn for the offense described in finding (1). (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebutable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably a safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense X for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 841 et seq. 10 Under 18 U.S.C. § 294(c). 11 The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonable appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of another person or the community. Alternative Findings (B) 11 There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appe Case Number: 2:05CR 20151-01 Defendant In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts retention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part I—Findings of Fact [1] The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a Part I—Findings of Fact Case Number: 2:05CR 20151-01
ROMA JEAN PITTMAN Case Number: 2:05CR 20151-01 Defendant In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts retention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part I—Findings of Fact (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a federal offense or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed an offense for which the maximum sentence is the imprisonment or death. an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local of fense described in finding (1). (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably a safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense X for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 841 et seq under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonate the appearance of the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Alternative Findings (B) Part II—Written	TAT.
In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts retention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part I—Findings of Fact	IAL
Part I—Findings of Fact (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a
(1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a federal offense or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4) an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. [2] The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense described in finding (1). [3] A period of not more than five years has clapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonm for the offense described in finding (1). [4] Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably a safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) [5] The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonable the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) [6] There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. [7] There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence ance of the evidence that	quire the or local oftense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local of or the offense described in finding (1). Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably a safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense X for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 841 et seq. under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonathe appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence are ance of the evidence that a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. [22] The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. [33] A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the	state § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local of the offense described in finding (1). (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonn for the offense described in finding (1). (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably a safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense X for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 841 et seq. under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonable the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence arrance of the evidence that § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. [22] The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local of the offense described in finding (1). [33] A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the	.*
(3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the [44] Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably a safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) [55] There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense in the imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in the imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in the imprison of conditions will reasonate the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) [65] There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. [66] There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by the convenience of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of the evidence that the defendant of the evidence of t	ffense. ient
(1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense X for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonable the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings(B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence are a rance of the evidence that	issure the X for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in □ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonate the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) [1] There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. [2] There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence □ a rance of the evidence that the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) [1] There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. [2] There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence are are of the evidence that	·
Alternative Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence	ibly assure
Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence are a convincing evidence.
Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence
I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence \square a grance of the evidence that
I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence \square a grance of the evidence that
I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence \square a grance of the evidence that
I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence \square a grance of the evidence that I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence \square a grance of the evidence that rance of the evidence that prepon-
combination of conditions, short of detention, will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required and the safety of others. T	h io onclusion is based primarily on the following: (1) the nature of the charges and the potential penalties: (2) defendant's record including the	me - 1
illure to appear & a drug distribution conviction; (3) defendant's history of substance abuse; (4) the fact defendant was on probation at	the time the alleged offenses; (5) the fact of the presymption noted above even if rebutted by production.	5 40

Part III—Directions Regarding Detention
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be assonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney overnment, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appear of the connection with a court proceeding.	ifforded a
July 2005 Hornof-W
Date Signature of Judicial Officer
Alonzo P. Wilson, U.S. Magistrate Judge

^{*}Insert as applicable: (a) Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. § 801 et seq.); (b) Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. § 951 et seq.); or (c) Section 1 of Act of Sept. 15, 1980 (21 U.S.C. § 955a).